A PAID summer radio journalism workshop for 15-18-year-olds

Get PAID to create a radio story this summer in RadioActive’s Online Intro to Radio Journalism Workshop. In this fun, challenging, and hands-on virtual workshop, teens ages 15-18 in the greater Seattle area learn radio journalism and storytelling skills, build confidence, and work with others while producing a radio story. Participants learn how to record and edit audio, conduct interviews, write scripts, speak on-air, and more.

The workshop runs from Monday, July 12th through Friday, August 6th, 2021 online on Zoom. All equipment needed is provided. Participants earn $600 for completing the workshop. No previous experience is necessary.
